

Sharon MacIvor's purpose is to serve the public and companion pets to the best of her ability in the capacity of a licensed veterinarian providing medical surgical and family services. Her education includes a Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine from Ross University 1988; Certified in Embryological transfer and artificial Insemination University of Guelph, Canada 1999; Bachelors from Barry University 1982; and AAHA Certification CO2 Laser Surgical Applications/Wet Lab Training 2011.

She has served as veterinarian at various animal hospitals since 1988 and now owns Dadeland Animal Hospital. She has participated in relief work throughout Miami Dade.

Dr. MacIvor holds various licenses including State of Florida Licensed Veterinarian; State of Florida Licensed Veterinary Medical Facility Healthcare establishment; State of Florida Drugs & Wholesale Permit; Drug Enforcement Agency Narcotics License; USDA Accredited Veterinarian; and is also a Florida Licensed Real Estate Agent.

Dr. MacIvor is affiliated with the Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association; serves as Medical Director/Committee Greater South Florida Humane Society (2014-2018); Board Member at South Florida Veterinary Medical Association from 2012-2018, served on Executive Committee 2008-2012, Member of Cornell Feline Health Center 2014-2018; American Association of Feline Practitioners; American Veterinary Medical Association; Florida Veterinary Medical Association; and South Florida Veterinary Medical Association.